Giuliano Andrea dell'Uva, dopo la laurea in architettura presso l'Università di Napoli Federico II, fonda il suo studio Giuliano Andrea dell'Uva Architetti con sede a Napoli.
Ha firmato progetti da Hong Kong a Milano, da Capri al Salento, tutti contraddistinti da una progettualità ricercata, attenta al particolare e alla tradizione dei luoghi in cui le dimore si trovano.
Il suo segno distintivo emerge dalla capacità di coniugare il gusto della memoria estetica con quello più contemporaneo che, con verve creativa, viene adattato alle esigenze della committenza.
Oltre a ristrutturazioni di importanti ville e appartamenti si confronta anche con progetti di spazi aperti al pubblico come negozi, boutique hotel, lounge bar e caffetterie. Tra i suoi lavori vi è il completamento del progetto di recupero degli ex stabilimenti Cirio destinati a laboratori per la costruzione delle scenografie del Real Teatro di San Carlo di Napoli.

Maioliche come tappeti o tappeti in maiolica? Uno stile nuovo e moderno nella Collezione Carpet della Ceramica Francesco De Maio disegnata dall'Arch. Giuliano Andrea dell'Uva. Tappeti di ceramica sovrapposti, mollemente adagiati in interno o in esterno per portare i colori tipici delle case del mediterraneo. Tappeti maiolicati, chic ed eleganti. Tradizioni capresi, napoletane e vietresi, linee semplici ed essenziali, intramontabili decorazioni a mano trasformate in design.
Le intramontabili linee del bianco e del nero e la pennellata tipica degli anni '50 fondono il tutto con un'innovazione di frange sbarazzine che invitano ad accomodarsi sul pavimento esattamente come su di un vero tappeto. Singoli o sovrapposti, arredano gli ambienti donandogli un nuovo stile dal sapore etnico o monocolore.
"L'idea è nata dall'aver compreso la vera essenza della Ceramica Francesco De Maio e del nostro legame con la ceramica di Vietri, Napoli e la Costiera Amalfitana", afferma Giuliano Andrea dell'Uva. "Colori che richiamano la tradizione caprese e dettagli preziosi che trasformano gli ambienti in un must-have di stile moderno e sofisticato".

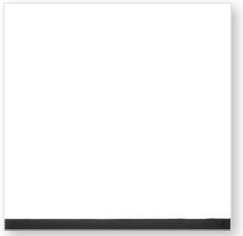

Majolica tiles such as carpets or carpets made up of majolica tiles? A new and modern style in the Carpet Collection by Ceramica Francesco De Maio, designed by Giuliano Andrea dell'Uva Architect. Overlapped ceramic carpets, softly laid inside or outside to bring the typical colors of Mediterranean houses. Chic and elegant majolica carpets. Caprese, Neapolitan and Vietri traditions, simple and essential lines, timeless hand decorations transformed into design.
The timeless lines of black and white and the typical brush stroke of the '50s blend everything with an innovation of wild fringes that invite you to sit on the floor as on a real carpet. Single or overlapped, they furnish the spaces, giving them a new style with an ethnic or single-colored flavor.
"The idea was born from understanding the true essence of the Ceramica Francesco De Maio and our link with Vietri ceramics, Naples and Amalfi Coast", says Giuliano Andrea dell'Uva. "Colors that recall the Capri tradition and precious details that transform spaces into a must-have of modern and sophisticated style".
